Good morning Sue:

Now that I have all the comments I will organize them into groups of similar comments/subject matter and I need to prepare written responses to the comments. I will incorporate them in the Fact Sheet attached to the permit and issue the permit as final. Aggrieved parties have 30 days to appeal the permit.

Hi Gregg,

Now that the public comment period for Whole Ocean's permit has closed. What happens next? Sorry to be a pain. It has created a good deal of angst and anxiety here in Bucksport that Belfast project opponents have interjected themselves into the project in Bucksport. I want to be able to give appropriate and accurate responses when asked 'what next'?

Thank you -

Sue
